Teach, Empower and Enjoy Your Children.

Both Moms and Dads Matter Mothers and Fathers Interact Differently

Mothers teach children vital emotional regulation skills.

As you watch this interaction between a mom and her baby, notice how the mother and the baby are aware of each other in the conversation and how the baby looks to his mother for cues on how to interact.

Fathers interact with their children differently than Mothers

Now watch the interaction between this father his baby. Research shows us that fathers are more likely to stimulate, toss, and use an object to engage with their children.
